

The City of Miles City, in conjunction with the Montana DEQ and MCC, presents

River Awareness Conference II

November 7, 2009

All events free!

Miles Community College

Features and Session Schedule

Features	Time	Session Topics and Speakers	Location
Information Booths - MCC Hallway and Lobby  Screening of documentary, 'Liquid Assets' - Auditorium	9:00	Welcome Address: Mayor Joe Whalen	Auditorium
	9:30	Taking Responsibility for YOUR Environment: What you can do in your Home, Community and Beyond	Room 101
		Flood Mitigation Measures: A Look At Other Communities	Room 106
		Restoring and Maintaining Healthy Rivers for Wildlife	Room 107
		CBM & the Tongue River: A Golden Shower on the Tongue?	Room 113
		Noxious Weeds in the River Channel	Room 313
	10:45	Keep Miles City Beautiful: Taking the Next Step	Room 101
		Flood Control Planning - A Preview of What's Ahead	Room 106
		Status of Miles City's New Floodmap: Preparing for the Next Step	Room 107
		Encouraging River Recreation in Southeastern Montana: An Overview of the Benefits	Room 113
		The Life Cycle of Our Drinking Water: Clean Water Today and Tomorrow	Room 313
	Noon	Stormwater Runoff and Non-Point Source Pollution: What Can Be Done About It?	Room 101
		Channel Migration Zones	Room 106
		Controlling Development in the Floodplain: What Residents and Property Owners Need to Know	Room 107
		River Access, Etiquette and Safety	Room 113
		The Role of Wetlands and Riparian Environments	Room 313
	1:15	Keynote Speaker: Char Miller, Director Environmental Analysis Program, Pomona College	Auditorium

For more information, please call the Miles City Planning Office at 406-234-3493